“WHAT WILL THEY SAY ABOUT YOU WHEN YOU ARE GONE?”
CREATING A LIFE OF LEGACY

BOOK TALK BY RABBI DANIEL COHEN
CONGREGATION AGUDATH SHOLOM, STAMFORD, CT,
LARGEST ORTHODOX CONGREGATION IN NEW ENGLAND

There's not one person alive who hasn't confronted their own mortality. But how do we lead our lives with a sense of urgency every day? How do we develop the courage to make choices not based on pressure but on principle? In his new book Rabbi Daniel Cohen will help you tap into the best version of yourself. Through storytelling, practical exercises, and profound wisdom, he will teach you seven transformative principles so you can live life with purpose and passion and more closely align yourself with the person you aspire to be.

“THE STORY OF AN UNDERGROUND —
THE RESISTANCE OF THE JEWS OF KOVNO
IN THE SECOND WORLD WAR”

BOOK TALK BY ROBERT GEFFEN

This important book, originally published in Hebrew in 1962, provides the first academic account of Jewish resistance to the Nazis. The authors, Dov Levin and Zvie Brown, members of the Kovno underground, escaped the Kovno ghetto to fight as partisans. Robert Geffen, who initiated the English translation of the book, will speak about what the book teaches us today, telling this remarkable story of a small group of young people who acted to survive in impossible and terrible circumstances.
